

This Tuesday, November 30, is GivingTuesday, the national day of philanthropy. We hope you will consider marking the day with a gift to the Tufts European Center. As always, we appreciate any support that you can provide!

Read on for program news and updates, as well as information on how to give this year. Thank you for being a part of our special community!

What does it mean to give back to Talloires?

On this #TuftsGivingTuesday, we are especially grateful for you and everything that you do to make the European Center and our programs thrive!

This year, your generous gifts to the Tufts University European Center will support our important work and ensure that we can:

- provide essential scholarship aid to our program participants;

- maintain the Priory building and its infrastructure, and serve as stewards of the historic Priory building;
- foster the transformative experiences and experiential education that shape students' academic and personal trajectories; and
- further the MacJannets' legacy through all aspects of our work.

As we approach the holiday season, we are so thankful for the many people in our community who have supported us over the years and especially during the difficult months of this pandemic. Your help and encouragement kept us moving forward, even without our regular programming in Talloires.

We are optimistic that 2022 will provide us with the opportunity to safely gather our amazing faculty, students, and staff in Talloires. Please accept our warmest wishes for a healthy and safe holiday season, as well as our thanks for your loyal support!

Fondue savoyarde: a history

Fondue might be Switzerland's national dish, but fondue savoyarde hails from the French Alps region of Savoie. Fondue savoyarde is one of the most famous dishes to come from this region. Many of us have heard of it (and eaten it!), but do you know its origin story? Read on to learn more about this staple.

Reopening the Priory doors

Though the pandemic prevented the European Center from running any of its own programs again this summer, COVID conditions in France were such that the European Center staff were finally able to return to Talloires. The Priory serves as a cultural hub for the village, and was able to host many visitors this summer.
